

Michał Heller

Rev. Prof. Dr. Michał Heller, laureate of this year's Scientific Award „Ratio et Spes”, is Professor Emeritus at the Pontifical University of John Paul II in Krakow and an associate member of the Vatican Astronomical Observatory. He is also a full member of the Pontifical Academy of Sciences, a full member of the Polish Academy of Sciences in Krakow, and a recipient of the prestigious John Templeton Prize, a Knight of the Order of the White Eagle and a laureate of the Erazm and Anna

Jerzmanowski Prize. Rev. Professor Heller is the founder of the Copernicus Centre for Interdisciplinary Studies - now part of the Jagiellonian University in Krakow. Professor Heller's research areas include relativistic physics, in particular relativistic cosmology, as well as geometrical methods in physics, philosophy of nature and history of science, as well as problems from the borderline of science and theology. Rev. Professor is the author of numerous scientific works and popular science books.